

Shared Lives

Shared Lives is coming to Thurrock and ategi – an experienced provider of Shared Lives – is looking to recruit a Manager to set up the Scheme and lead the recently recruited staff team.

If you are passionate about delivering quality person-centred care and support and can bring that energy to building relationships, working with people who need support, their families, and Thurrock Council to set up and be part of a leading Shared Lives service we'd like to hear from you.

Shared Lives is a form of care where vulnerable adults are carefully matched with and supported within the ordinary households of approved Shared Lives Carers and their families. ategi's Shared Lives team will be based in East Tilbury and will recruit, assess, train and support individuals, couples or families to become Approved Shared Lives Carers across the county.

The Shared Lives team will become part of ategi's network of Shared Lives schemes benefitting from expert support and peer learning as well as the opportunity to be part of an exciting new service in Thurrock. We are looking for a positive, self-motivated and dynamic person with excellent communication skills, effective time management and a willingness to work across Thurrock to change people's lives for the better.

Shared Lives Manager (full time, 39 hours per week)

£28,849 - £34,303 per annum

Applicants will need:

- Energy, enthusiasm and drive to set up the first Shared Lives scheme in Thurrock
- Ideally, experience of working as a Registered Manager in the care sector
- A track record of successful project management
- Clear understanding of and enthusiasm for Shared Lives
- Marketing and promotional skills (plus a bit of creative flair) to ensure understanding of Shared Lives across Thurrock
- Proven management experience in the care sector and ability to manage staff
- Excellent communication skills
- Motivational and strong relationship building skills
- Ability to promote equality and diversity
- Understanding of regulations for the provision of Shared Lives
- Assessment and report writing skills

ategi is a charitable organisation offering excellent opportunities for training and career development.
